

You Love The Thunder (Jackson Browne)

INTRO: G D A (2x)

When you look over your shoulder And you see the light that you have left behind
When you think it over, do you ever wonder? What it is that holds your life so close to mine

You love the thunder, and you love the rain
What you see revealed within the anger is worth the pain
And before the lightning fades and you surrender
You've got a second to look at the dark side of a man

You love the thunder, and you love the rain
You know your hunger, oo, like you know your name
I know you wonder how you ever came
To be a woman in love with a man in search of the flame

Draw the shades and light the fire For the night it holds you, and it calls your name
And just like your lover knows your desire And the crazy longing that time will never tame

You love the thunder, and you love the rain
You know your hunger, oo, like you know your name
I got your number, if it's still the same
And you can dream, but you can never go back the way you came

You love the thunder, and you love the rain
You know your hunger, oo, like you know your name
You love the thunder, and you love the rain I got your number, oo love the rain
