Hey, um, I know not a lot of people listen to this kind of "ancient" Wilco like I do but was playing around on my guitar and the words just sort of popped into my head... and works perfectly with the album version... the song is from "Being There," possibly one of my favourite Wilco albums. Maybe second to Yankee Hotel Foxtrot... but yeah, here you go, unadulterated country.

Intro

D F# G D

A G D

Chorus 1

D F#
You're trying my patience, try pink carnations
G D
Red roses and yellow daffodils

Chorus 2

A G D
Don't forget the flowers, someday, I know you will

Verse 1

D F#
Displays of affection and all good intentions,
G D
Why don't you just send me the bill

Chorus 2

A G D D#
Don't forget the flowers, someday, I know you will

Bridge

E
Lately you've been taking me
E C G
Way too seriously, ooooooooh
Bm
I can't ever explain why
F# G D
I don't feel your pain, ooooooooh

Solo thing ! Play the verse riff

DF#GD

AGD

Verse 2

D F#
I left you behind, I know it's been a long time but

G D
I'm not over you

Chorus 2

A G D
Don't forget the flowers, someday, I hope I do

Chorus 1

D F#
You're tryin' my patience, try pink carnations
G D
Red roses and yellow daffodils

Chorus 2

A G (play this G for four bars instead of two)
Don't forget the flowers, someday
G D
I know I will
A G D D#
Don't forget the flowers, someday, I know I will

Outro
