

The Song

Intro

Key: E

E A C#m B

Verse

E A C#m B
Sometimes it's hard to keep track, of all the places we've been
A E C#m B
next thing you know, the night is creeping in E A C#m B
It all changes quickly, in the blink of an eye
A B
you hopped that train before it rolled on by

Chorus

G C Em D
And the hands on the clock keep ticking, just rolling along
F G F C
in the end all that's left is the song
G C Em D
Tried to keep the fire burning, but it didn't last too long
F G in the end all that's left is the song

Verse

E A C#m B
While you were sleeping, a lot went down
A E C#m B
now it's the same old place but it's a brand new town
E A C#m B
I wake up in the morning, and where you layed your head
A B
there's an empty space instead

Chorus

G C Em D
And the hands on the clock keep ticking, just rolling along
F G F C
in the end all that's left is the song
G C Em D
Tried to keep the fire burning, but it didn't last too long
F G in the end all that's left is the song

Verse

A# C
You hit me like a hurricane, I did not detect F Am Dm C
blind sided when I least expected
A# C
Where it goes from here, I guess that all depends, D
if this is how the story ends

Chorus

G C Em D
And the hands on the clock keep ticking, just rolling along

in the ^F end all that's left is the ^G song ^{F C} Tried to keep the fire burning, but it didn't last too long ^{Em D} in the ^F end all that's left is the, end all that's left is the ^G song
