D Am G F D
I didn't believe that the time was quite ready just then
D Am G F D
You weren't your own person and I wasn't quite my own man
F Em7 D
Our souls were as restless as sand

D Am G F D
I was saddened to leave you but I just couldn't see us tied down
D Am G F D
We needed to grow and our purposes had to be found
F Em7 D
And you couldn't while I was around

Hope you didn't misread my aim That you didn't think it a game
C#m F# E A G F D E
That you haven't pinned all the blame on me For leaving you alone
F Em7 D
I did it to make you your own

D Am G F D
Our separate encounters let our independences grow

And self-realization provided the basis to know

We could weather the ill winds that blow

D Am G F D
And now we remeet As complete as two people can be
D Am G F D
Inwardly strong we belong to ourselves totally
F Em7 D
Our minds are determined and free
