

Misgivings (Schoofs)

D G A D G D A
Sunning together in seas of white sand, near the ocean she and I laid down
G D A Bm G A D
She started to cry and whispered three words. "I love you" was such a simple sound

D G A D G D A
I asked why she wept and she started to smile, and ran 'tween the sea and the shore
G D A Bm G A D
She teased me to follow and walk through the foam. Why did I ask that silly question for?

Can I analyze the workings of a feeling that I have?
F#m G Em A A7
Is this girl more than what she seems to be?
F#m G Em F#m
Isn't Love a substance that you think you can control?
F#m G Em A
Does it flood your mind and cloud reality?

D G A D G D A
Her hand in mine, the beach becomes a road, and it seems to take us nowhere
G D A Bm G A D
I'm lost in her eyes and her voice calms the sea, and the sun shines its glory on her hair

D G A D G D A
Twilight falls around us, the tide engulfs the land. We are sealed by a bond we have made
G D A Bm G A D
Seated by our fire, the shadows dancing round, I don't understand why love was meant to fade

REFRAIN

D G A D G D A
I love her, I love her.... I try to tell myself. But if we parted would I really die?
G D A Bm
A momentary gladness is often what we have...
G A D
I kissed her cheek and heard her gently sigh
G A D
I kissed her cheek and heard her gently sigh...
G A D
I kissed her cheek and heard her gently sigh...
