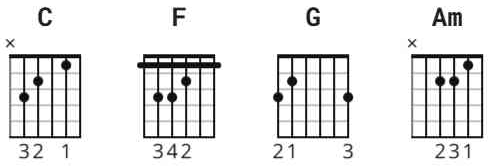
Tomorrow Is A Long Time chords by Bob Dylan

Tuning: E A D G B E

CHORDS



```
C                  F       C
If today was not a crooked Highway
C                    F       C
If tonight was not an endless trail
   F               G           C Am
If tomorrow wasn't such a long time
     F                  G                C
Then lonesome would mean nothing to you at all

Chorus

         F          G                 C
Yes, and only if my own true love was waiting
               F        G               C
And if i could hear her heart a' softly pounding
         F       G             C
Yes, and only if she was lying by me
    F         G           C
I'd lie in my bed... once again

C                         F        C
I can't see my reflection in the water
C                             F        C
I can't speak the sounds that show no pain
C        F        G          C      Am
I can't hear the echo of my footsteps
     F           G               C
I can't remember the sound of my own name

Chorus

        F          G                 C
Yes, and only if my own true love was waiting
               F        G               C
And if i could hear her heart a' softly pounding
         F       G             C
Yes, and only if she was lying by me
    F         G           C
I'd lie in my bed... once again

C                         F       C
```

There's beauty in the silver, singing river
C F C
There's beauty in the sunlight in the sky
F G C Am
But none of these and nothing else can touch the beauty
F G C
I remember in my true love's eyes.

Chorus

F G C
Yes, and only if my own true love was waiting
F G C
And if i could hear her heart a' softly pounding
F G C Am
Yes, and only if she was lying by me
F G C
I'd lie in my bed... once again
