This is the last day of our acquaintance

C                    F                    C    F / C

I will meet you later in somebody's office

C                    A#                    C    F / C

I'll talk but you won't listen to me

C                    F                    C / F / C

I know what your answer will be

C                    F                    C / F / C

I know you don't love me anymore

C                    F                    C / F / C

You used to hold my hand when the plane took off

C                    A#                    C / F / C

Two years ago there just seemed so much moooooore

C                    F                    C    F / C

And I don't know what happened to our love

C                    F                    C    F / C

Today's the day our friendship has been stale

C                    F                    C    F / C

And we will meet later to finalize the details

C                    A#                    C / F / C

Two years ago the seed was planteeeeeeeeeed

C                    F                    C    F / C

And since then you have taken me for granted
