

Match in the Rain - Alec Benjamin // 2020 // key: Bbm

Intro: | Bbm | Ab - Ebm | (x2)

1. Seems you've been changing lately. I can feel the distance in your touch
There's two people in this hallway, but there's only one of us
That's tryna keep this fire going. Should I just give up?
I sense trouble on the horizon. I'm afraid our time is up

Chorus: The clouds are rolling in, I feel you drifting a - way. And though my intuition tells me that it's too late
That in these conditions, tryin' to bring back the flame is like. Tryin' to light a match in the rain
I still want to make you love me, make you love me a - gain. Even though my intuition tells me that it's the end
That in these conditions, tryin' to bring back the flame is like. Tryin' to light a match in the rain

2. Yeah, I can taste it, it's the end. This love's im - possible to save Though you em - brace it, I can't face it. So I look the other way
There's trouble in your eyes. But I pre - tend that we're o - kay
I wish that we could compromise. But there's just nothin' left to say

Chorus: Repeat Chorus

Bridge: (Spoken) Tryin' to light a match in the rain. Like flyin' a kite in a hurricane Like ridin' a bike with no air or chain. On a broken road, it's a losing game
Tryin' to light a match in the rain. Like flyin' a kite in a hurricane.
