

Intro (same as verse)
G | G7 | C | A7 | G | D | C | G

Verse 1

G
Yah I know you're right
G7
I see it in your fierce eyes
C
But me I've never thought straight
A7
Since the day I had the first doubt
G
Yah I know you're right
D
And I'll back you to a point pal
C
But I'll never be constrained by
G
Another man's ideas now

Verse 2

G
I spent too long on this road
G7
Looking for the answers
C
But poverty and failure
A7
Aren't what I'm after
G
I painted fight on factories
D
But they closed the factory down pal
C
I got to find out where the heart's gone
G
Got to find out where the nerves gone

Chorus

D C
What do you do
G
When democracy fails you
B7 C G
Ahhhh Ahh
D C
What do you do
G
When the rest can't see it's true?
B7 C C D
Ahhhh Ahh

What Do You Do, The Proclaimers

Verse 3

G
Pat votes the Scots way
G7
Just like her mother
C
But South always takes all
A7
Just like her brother
G
The next time she might vote
D
So might the others
C
But times running out pal
G
Cause they're giving up in numbers

Chorus

D C
What do you do
G
When democracy's all through
B7 C G
Ahhhh Ahh
D C
What do you do
G
When minority means you?
B7 C C D
Ahhhh Ahh

Instrumental (same as verse)

G | G7 | C | A7
G | D | C | G

Chorus

D C
What do you do
G
When democracy's all through
B7 C G
Ahhhh Ahh
D C
What do you do
G
When minority means you?
B7 C C D
Ahhhh Ahh
B7 C C G
Ahhhh Ahh
