

Snowbird by Anne Murray

Capo 2

[Intro]

G Bm Am D D7 G

[Verse 1]

G Bm Am
Beneath it's snowy mantle cold and clean,
D D7
The unborn grass lies waiting for its coat to turn G
to green.
G Bm Am
The snowbird sings the song he always sings,
D D7
And speaks to me of flowers that will bloom
G
again in spring.

[Verse 2]

G Bm
When I was young my heart was young then,
Am
too.
D D7
Anything that it would tell me, that's the thing
G
that I would do.
G Bm Am
But now I feel such emptiness within,
D D7
For the thing that I want most in life's the thing
G
that I can't win.

Chorus

G Bm Am
Spread your tiny wings and fly away,
D D7
And take the snow back with you where it came

G
from on that day.
G Bm Am
The one I love forever is untrue,
D D7
And if I could you know that I would fly away with G
you.

Verse 3

G Bm Am
The breeze along the river seems to say,
D D7
That he'll only break my heart again should I
G decide to stay.
G Bm
So, little snowbird, take me with you when you Am
go D
To that land of gentle breezes where the D7 G
peaceful waters flow.

Chorus

G Bm Am
Spread your tiny wings and fly away,
D D7
And take the snow back with you where it came G
from on that day.
G Bm Am
The one I love forever is untrue,
D D7
And if I could you know that I would fly away with G
you.
D C Am
Yeah, if I could I know that I would fly yyyyy
G away with you
