MERLE HAGGARD

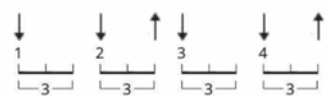

verse

G                          G7                          C7

          G  D7
But I gave up my home to see you satisfied
          G                          G7                          C7
And I just called to let you know where I'll be living
          G                          D7                          G
It's not much but I feel welcome here inside
