You can legalize your lows You can wear your summer clothes into New Orleans

And I will lay my burden down Rest my head upon that shore
C Em. E. NC
And when I wear that starry crown. I won't be wanting anymore

A E
Take your burdens to the Mardi Gras Let the music wash your soul

You can mingle in the street You can jingle to the beat of the jelly roll

Tumba, tumba, tumba, Mardi Gras. Tumba, tumba, tumba, day
