

Intro: | D | D |

1. For a small girl, Barbara sure has got a big crush
The kind that makes you want to break stuff,
And blame it on a man you don't know
She came down to New York City in a big bus, nine hours driving
And you can't just stay home,
So it doesn't matter which way you go

(A) G - D A G - D
Chorus: And now all day, the radio's been playing the same song
Can't shake that tune but it's O - K
Maybe the world isn't so small
Barbara knows it doesn't matter at all

Interlude: D

2. And each day, Barbara wakes up in a bad way,
Tells me quietly she has absolutely nothing to say,
But I don't seem to mind
And she says she won't listen to the band play,
She hates songs that never seem to go away
Now neither will mine

Chorus: [Repeat Chorus]

Interlude: | D | D | G | D |
| D | D | G | F#m - A |

Chorus: [Repeat Chorus]

Outro: Barbara knows, Barbara knows it doesn't matter at all
At all
At all
At all

Intro: | C | C |

1. For a small girl, Barbara sure has got a big crush
The kind that makes you want to break stuff,
And blame it on a man you don't know
She came down to New York City in a big bus, nine hours driving
And you can't just stay home,
So it doesn't matter which way you go

(G) F - C G F - C
Chorus: And now all day, the radio's been playing the same song
Can't shake that tune but it's O - K
Maybe the world isn't so small
Barbara knows it doesn't matter at all

Interlude: C

2. And each day, Barbara wakes up in a bad way,
Tells me quietly she has absolutely nothing to say,
But I don't seem to mind
And she says she won't listen to the band play,
She hates songs that never seem to go away
Now neither will mine

Chorus: [Repeat Chorus]

Interlude: | C | C | F | C |
| C | C | F | Em - G |

Chorus: [Repeat Chorus]

Outro: Barbara knows, Barbara knows it doesn't matter at all
At all
At all
At all