

NOBODY 'CEPT YOU (Bob Dylan)

1

G D G Em C
Nothing 'round here to me that's sacred, 'cept you, yeah you

G D G
There's nothing 'round here to me that matters

Em C
'Cept you, yeah you

C G
You're the one that reaches me, you're the one that I admire

C G
Every time we meet together, I feel like I'm on fire

C G Em
Nothing matters to me, and there's nothing I desire

C Am
'Cept you, yeah you

G D G Em C
Nothing 'round here I care to try for, 'cept you, yeah you

G D G Em C
Got nothing here to live or die for, except you, yeah you

C G
There's a hymn I used to hear in the churches all the time

C G
Make me feel so good inside, so peaceful, so sublime

C
Now there's nothing that reminds me of
G Em C Am
That old familiar chime, except you, yeah you

C
Used to run in the cemetery

G
Dance and run and sing when I was a child

C G
And it never seemed strange

C
But now I just pass mournfully

G
By that place where bones of life are piled

C G
I know something has changed

I'm a stranger here, and no one sees me, except you, yeah you
C G Em C
G D G Em C
Nothing any more seems to please me, except you, yeah you
C G
Nothing hypnotizes me or holds me in a spell
C G
Everything runs by me just like water from a well
C
Everybody wants my attention,
G Em C Am
Everybody's got something to sell Except you, yeah you
Am G / C / G
I'm in love with you!
