

Brokedown Palace - The Grateful Dead (1970)

[Intro]

G
G Am
Fare you well, my honey,
Bb F C
fare you well my only true one.
G Dm
All the birds that were singing
Bb C are flown, except you alone.

[Verse]

F
F Bb
Going to leave this brokedown palace,
F Dm
On my hands and my knees,
Bb F
I will roll, roll, roll.

F Am Bb F
Make myself a bed by the waterside,
F G
In my time, In my time,
Bb F
I will roll, roll roll.

[Chorus]

F A
In a bed, in a bed,
Bb F G
By the waterside I will lay my head.
F G
Listen to the river sing sweet songs,
Bb F
to rock my soul.

[Verse]

F
F Bb
River going to take me, sing sweet and sleepy,
F Dm
Sing me sweet and sleepy
Bb F
all the way back home.
F Am Bb F
It's a far gone lullaby, sung many years ago.
F G
Mama, mama many worlds I've come since
Bb F
I first left home.

[Chorus]

F A
Goin' home, goin' home,
Bb F G
By the waterside I will rest my bones,
F G
Listen to the river sing sweet songs,
Bb F
to rock my soul.

[Verse]

F
F Bb
Going to plant a weeping willow,
F Dm
On the bank's green edge
Bb F it will grow, grow, grow.

F Am Bb F
Sing a lullaby beside the water,
F G
Lovers come and go,
Bb F
the river roll, roll, roll.

[Chorus]

F A
Fare you well, fare you well,
Bb F G
I love you more than words can tell,
F G
Listen to the river sing sweet songs,
Bb F
to rock my soul.
