One Pint of Beer

PIERCE CAMPBELL

intro Em D C G X 4 (last 2 lines riff & harmonica)
G G G

Verse G D C D
Well, some men drink whiskey, some men drink wine
(G) D C D
Some don't drink at all, some drink all the time
Me, I like porter, just one pint a day
As I walk home from work, the pub's on the wa-a-ay

Chorus
G Am C
Well, I've a fine job, a warm hearth and good wife
Em D C D
But one pint of porter makes perfect my life
G Am C
I don't drink any more, I don't drink any less
Em D C G
But here is a secret I must confess
Em D C G
After one pint of porter, I don't count all the rest

Em D C G X 2 (riff and harmonica)
G G G

Verse G D C D
Well, a pint with the lads is a fine time indeed
(G) D C D
And talkin' the social's something every man needs
The gift of the gab with a powerful thirst
Will send ya home smilin' for better, for wo--orse

Chorus
G Am C
Well, I've a fine job, a warm hearth and good wife
Em D C D
But one pint of porter makes perfect my life
G Am C
I don't drink any more, I don't drink any less
Em D C G
But here is a secret I must confess
Em D C G
After one pint of porter, I don't count all the rest

Em D C G X 2 (riff and harmonica)

Verse G D C D
Life can be cheerful if you live it just so
(G) D C D
Here are just two things that all men should know
If you've a good woman, nev-er ye stray
Take one pint of porter at the end of the da-a-ay

Chorus
G Am C
I've a fine job, a warm hearth and good wife
Em D C D
But one pint of porter makes perfect my life
G Am C
I don't drink any more, I don't drink any less
Em D C G
But here is a secret I must confess
Em D C G
After one pint of porter, I don't count all the rest
Em D C G
After one pint of porter, I lose track of the rest
