GITAR INTRO, PART 2 of 2 (CHORUS)

G D F C

VERSE ONE (WITH THE BAND)

F

Down the street you can hear her scream you're a disgrace

Am

As she slams the door in his drunken face

Em7

And now he stands outside

F C G G

And all the neighbors start to gossip and drool

F

He cries oh, girl you must be mad,

Am

What happened to the sweet love you and me had?

Em7

Against the door he leans and starts a scene,

F C G G*

And his tears fall and burn the garden green

CHORUS

G D F C

And so castles made of sand fall in the sea, eventually

VERSE TWO

F

A little Indian brave who before he was ten,

Am

Em7

Played war games in the woods with his Indian friends, and he built up a dream that when he grew up, he would be a fearless warrior Indian Chief

F C G G

F

Many moons past and more the dream grew strong until

Am

Em7

Tomorrow he would sing his first war song and fight his first battle

F C G

But something went wrong, surprise attack killed him in his sleep that night

G*

CHORUS

G D F C

And so castles made of sand melts into the sea, eventually

INSTRUMENTAL (4 measures): VAMP IN G7

VERSE THREE

F

There was a young girl, whose heart was a frown, 'cause she was

Am

crippled for life, and she couldn't speak a sound. And she

Em7

F C G G

wished and prayed she could stop living, so she decided to die.

F

She drew her wheelchair to the edge of the shore

Am

And to her legs she smiled you wont hurt me no more

Em7

But then a sight she'd never seen made her jump and say

F C G

Look a golden winged ship is passing my way; and it really didn't have to stop (REST)..... It just kept on going...

G D F C

And so castles made of sand fall in the sea, eventually
