

(It's a) Monster's Holiday by Buck Owens and the Buckaroos (1972) (G)

[Intro] G5 x 4

[Chorus]

G C G
Frankenstein was the first in line, and the Wolfman came up next
A7 D7
Dra-cu-la was a doing his stuff a-breathing down my neck
G C G
Jump back, make tracks, here comes the Hunchback, better get out of his way
C G E7 A D G
Fee fee fi fi fo fo fum, it was a Monsters' Holi - day.

G
Well, I hopped into bed and covered up my head
C G
Said, "I'm gonna get a good night's sleep"
A7 D7
I got woke up about twelve o'clock and I jumped right to my feet.
G
There was gremlins, and goblins, dragons, and zombies
C G
Lordy, what an awful sight
C G E7
I said, "Good buddy, you may get me, but brother, let me tell you
A7 D G
That it's gonna be after the fight."

[Chorus]

G C G
Uncle Bill, well, he took ill, and they sent for me to come.
A7 D7
Well, I had to pass by the old graveyard, so I went on the run.
G
There was screaming and moaning, wailing and groaning,
C G
Scary as a mummy's curse
C G E7
I said, "Good buddy, you may get me, but brother, let me tell you
A7 D G
That you're gonna have to catch me first."

[Chorus] Do last line twice, then end on G
