

INTRO: (GUITAR ONLY (x4) → EVERYONE (x4): | E | A | D | A | (x4)

VERSE ONE

E A D A E A D A

Mother doesn't go out anymore.
Just sits at home and rolls her spas-tic eyes.
But every weekend through the door
Come words of wisdom from the world outside.

PRE-CHORUS

C#m B/C# C#m G#m7*

If you wanna know about the bishop and the actress
If you wanna know how to be a star
If you wanna know about the stains on the mattress.....U can read it in the

Sunday Papers

VERSE TWO

E A D A E A D A

Mother's wheelchair stays out in the hall.
Why should she go out when the TV's on?
Whatever moves beyond these walls,
She'll know the facts when Sunday comes along.

PRE-CHORUS

C#m B/C# C#m G#m7*

If you wanna know about the mad punk rockers
If you wanna know how to play guitar
If you wanna know 'bout any other suckers.....U can read it in the

VERSE THREE

E A D A E A D A

Brother's headin' that way, now, I guess.
He just read something, made his face turn blue.
Well, I got nothin' 'gainst the press;
They wouldn't print it if it wasn't true

C#m B/C# C#m G#m7*

If you wanna know about the gay politician (oh yeah!)
If you wanna know how to drive your car
If you wanna know 'bout the new sex position....U can read it in the
