

Maggie May Rod Stewart (1970) (D)

Intro: D/Em7/G/D-G x2

- A G D
1. Wake up Maggie I think I've got something to say to you
 2. The morning sun when it's in your face really shows your age
 3. All I needed was a friend to lend a guiding hand
 4. I suppose I could collect my books and get on back to school

A G D

It's late September and I really should be back at school
But that don't worry me none, in my eyes you're everything
But you turned into a lover and mother what a lover you wore me out
Or steal my daddy's cue and make a living out of playing pool

G D G A

I know I keep you amused But I feel I'm being used
I laughed at all your jokes, my love you didn't need to coax
All you did was wreck my bed And in the morning kick me in the head
Or find myself a rock and roll band that needs a helping hand

Em F#m Em Em- -D (beat 4)

Oh Maggie I couldn't have tried any more
Oh Maggie I couldn't have tried any more
Oh Maggie I couldn't have tried any more
Oh Maggie, I wish I'd never seen your face

Em A Em A

You led me away from home just to save you from being alone
You led me away from home just to save you from being alone
You led me away from home 'cause you didn't want to be alone
You made a first class fool out of me, but I'm as blind as a fool can be

Em A G D

You stole my heart, and that's what really hurts
You stole my soul that's a pain I can do without
You stole my heart I couldn't leave you if I tried
You stole my heart but I love you anyway
