

Paddy's Green Shamrock Shore

capo 4, key: F#

instrumental verse w harmonica

then interstitial: D Cadd9 G6 X2

D Cadd9 G6 D
From Derry quay we sailed away on the twenty-third of May.
G D Cadd9
We were boarded by a pleasant crew, bound for Amerikay.
G D Cadd9
Fresh water there we did take on, five thousand gallons or more,
D Cadd9 G6 D
in case we'd run short going to New York, far away from the shamrock shore.

D Cadd9 G6 D
So fare thee well, sweet Liza dear, and likewise to Derry town,
G D Cadd9
and twice farewell to my comrades boys, who dwell on that sainted ground.
G D Cadd9
If fortune it ever should favour me, or I to have money in store
D Cadd9 G6 D
I'll come back and I'll wed the wee lassie I left, on Paddy's green shamrock shore.

D Cadd9 G6 D
We sailed three weeks, we were all seasick, not a man on board was free.
G D Cadd9
We were all confined unto our bunks, with no-one to pity poor me.
G D Cadd9
No father dear, nor mother kind, to hold up me head, which twas sore,
D Cadd9 G6 D
which made me think more on the lassie I left, on Paddy's green shamrock shore.

instrumental verse w harmonica

then interstitial: D Cadd9 G6 X2

D Cadd9 G6 D
We safely reached the other side, in three and twenty days,
G D Cadd9
We were taken as passengers by a man, and led round in six different ways.
G D Cadd9
We each of us drank a parting glass, in case we might never meet more
D Cadd9 G6 D
And we drank a health to old Ireland, and Paddy's green shamrock shore.

D Cadd9 G6 D
So fare thee well, sweet Liza dear, and likewise to Derry town,
G D Cadd9
and twice farewell to my comrades boys, who dwell on that sainted ground.
G D Cadd9
If fortune it ever should favour me, or I to have money in store
D Cadd9 G6 D
I'll come back and I'll wed, the wee lassie I left, on Paddy's green shamrock shore.

instrumental verse w harmonica

Paddy's Green Shamrock Shore

no capo, key: F#

page 1 of 2

instrumental verse w harmonica

then interstitial: F# E B

F#

E B F#

From Derry quay we sailed away on the twenty-third of May.

B F#

E

We were boarded by a pleasant crew, bound for Amerikay.

B

F#

E

Fresh water there we did take on, five thousand gallons or more,

F#

E

B

F#

in case we'd run short going to New York, far away from the shamrock shore.

So fare thee well, sweet Liza dear, and likewise to Derry town, And twice farewell to my comrades boys, who dwell on that sainted ground. If fortune it ever should favour me, or I to have money in store, I'll come back and wed the lassie I left, on Paddy's Green Shamrock shore.

F#

E B F#

We sailed three weeks, we were all seasick, not a man on board was free.

B F#

E

We were all confined unto our bunks, with no-one to pity poor me.

B

F#

E

No father dear, nor mother kind, to hold up me head, which twas sore,

F#

E

B

F#

which made me think more on the lassie I left, on Paddy's green shamrock shore.

Paddy's Green Shamrock Shore

no capo, key: F#

PAGE 2 OF 2

instrumental verse w harmonica

then interstitial: F# E B X2

F# E B F#
We safely reached the other side, in three and twenty days,
B F# E
We were taken as passengers by a man, and led round in six different ways.
F# E
We each of us drank a parting glass, in case we might never meet more
F# E B F#
And we drank a health to old Ireland, and Paddy's green shamrock shore.

The musical score consists of four staves of music in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The melody is written in a simple, folk style. Above the notes, red text indicates the chords: F# (first staff), F# (second staff), E B F# (third staff), and F# (fourth staff). The lyrics are written below the notes.

F# F# E B F#
So fare thee well, sweet Liza dear, and likewise to Derry town, And B F# E
twice farewell to my comrades boys, who dwell on that sainted ground. If B F# E
fortune it ever should favour me, or I to have money in store, I'll F# F# E B F#
come back and wed the lassie I left, on Paddy's Green Shamrock shore.

instrumental verse w harmonica